

LOCAL BRIEFS

Mr. J. Baron one of Scotland Neck's bustling merchants left for Baltimore and New York this morning.

Miss Ethel Madry returned to Averett College, Danville, Va. to resume her studies.

Rev. J. W. Matthers of Aulander, N. C. spent last night in town. He had been on a visit to his son in Richmond, Va.

Messrs Robert Edmondson, Charlie Clayton and Harry Tomlinson of Tarboro motored over here Sunday afternoon.

Mr. J. W. Madry is off on a business trip to New York and to Baltimore. He left on the nine-thirty train.

Mr. Charles Cotton one of Scotland Neck's bustling and successful farmers was in town this morning. He is the farmer some one was telling us that always carried more money away from town than he brought in. It was learned that he had an attractive and comfortable home. Among other things it is furnished with DeLo lights.

Mr. S. O. Purvis left on the 11:29 train this morning for Tarboro, N. C. on business. Mr. Purvis lives out on Route 2 in Roseneath township and is one of the successful farmers of that neighborhood. When asked as to his 1920 crops—corn, peanuts and cotton said they were all good and that he had ample supplies for home use, meat etc. Mr. Purvis has raised a family of eight children and all are away from home except two and they are attending school here. All were at home Christmas which proved to be a most delightful home gathering.

Swordfish No Mean Foeman.
In the British museum may be seen the heavy oaken plank, once a part of the bottom of a stout vessel, which had been pierced by the sword of a swordfish. The weapon remains fast fixed in the timber. Along the Atlantic coast of the United States swordfish are hunted both for their flesh, which is palatable, and also in order to protect the schools of bluefish and mackerel which they ravage.

UNUSUAL CONDITION

Texas Lady Suffered With Failing and Aching Pains in Her Back, Which Cardui Relieved.

Houston, Texas.—Mrs. C. D. Cook, of 212 Willet Street, this city, recently said: "About four months after my marriage, I began suffering much pain and knew that my condition was unusual, but couldn't just decide what was wrong. I had to go to bed. . . . "All across my back and hips were pains, pulling and aching until I could hardly sit up. I stayed in bed a few days. My husband had heard of Cardui . . . so I told him he might get it. "After I had taken Cardui a few days, I was up. I took five bottles and haven't been in bed since for this trouble, for I have the least symptoms of this trouble I get Cardui and take it in time. "I have a number of friends who have used Cardui, and they recommend it very highly. "The experience of this Texas lady is similar to that related by thousands of other women. "Cardui is purely vegetable, and mild and gentle in its action. Cardui may be the very medicine you need if suffering with womanly troubles. Take Cardui. NC-123
